

Application for roller bearing measurements

Proximion is the market leader in Fiber Bragg-grating (FBG) applications.

SKF and Proximion have a partnership to combine SKF's fiber optic measurement technology and Proximion's knowledge about advanced fiberoptic sensors and data acquisition units.

Novator Solutions applied our LabVIEW expertise to develop a modern and aesthetic graphical user interface for configuring measurements and visualizing data from roller bearings equipped with FBG enabled optical sensors.